

Margaret joined the Army Reserve in 1977 starting off in WRAAC Corp at 7FER. She then served in RAAOC, with Army Recruiting. She recruited for 7ESR being mainly based at Ringwood East Depot, but also served at the Victoria Street Depot and finished at Oakleigh.

Margaret was happy to reach the rank of Corporal.

During her time with the Army Reserve, she also worked as a volunteer staff member for the Air Cadets for 19 years and occasionally supported the Army Cadets based at Ringwood East Depot.

Margaret ended her Army Reserve service in 1999 and ended with Cadets in 2000.

Margaret worked on various committees while working full time in the Railways, mostly in the Seniors holiday travel programme.

She is now involved with RAE Association where she holds a committee position, MNHWN, youth leadership and is one of the Ringwood RSL Funeral Officers. She also looks after her family and when the opportunity arises, she likes to travel.
